Data No. 2. John Mc Neill ran away from his home in Liverpool, England; while a boy in his teens and followed the seas as a sailor. While in New York on a ship from Liverpool he meets the Stairs family, another Scotch family, and falls in love with their daughter Lovie Stairs and wants to marry her. She refuses until he promises not to follow the sea any longer. He marries her after making one more trip. They start for the West via Philadelphia and Pittsburg. They were a year going from New York City to Pittsburg. There they built a house boat and float down the Ohio River. At Boat Run they stop and make camp for their first child to be born "Sarah". Then they go on to near Laurel where they bought a farm of 700 acres and located and where all their 12 children were born (Sarah, Mary, Elisabeth, Harbeson, Oliver, John, James, Robert, Nan, Lovina, Frank and Rebecca.) John Mc Neill first became a buyer of cattle and corn throughout that county. Then he built a boat of his own and traded down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers from Cincinnati to New Orleans.

 DANE ALDERSON Mc NEILL

Nov. 22, 1928

The following is regarding my grandfather, Andrew Peter Alderson, as told me by my mother. -- Jessie Mc Neill.

Andrew Peter Alderson was from Denmark, his parents died when he was a small child. An uncle looked after him and according to his story this uncle was very cruel to him. At the age of nine he ran away, stowed away on a ship bound for America. After they were out to sea, and he was found, the captain took a notion to him, and when they reached Massachusetts he took him home to Plymouth, Mass., to his wife. The captain had no children and my grandfather was adopted by him and his wife. He inherited their property and himself followed the sea when he grew up. At the time of his death he was captain and owner of his ship. It is thought that he likely died of yellow fever in New Orleans in 1865, but no one has ever known for sure. His ship disappeared at the same time he did. Grandmother Alderson was left with practically no means and a large family, and she had a hard struggle raising them.
